

The background is an abstract painting featuring a dense, textured surface. The primary color is a deep teal or dark blue, which is layered with numerous fine, expressive brushstrokes in shades of brown, tan, and lighter blue. These strokes are most concentrated in the upper right quadrant, where they appear to radiate downwards, creating a sense of movement and depth. The overall effect is that of a rich, tactile artwork, possibly a close-up of a larger piece.

Every day you face an onslaught of various forms and degrees of persuasion, all in an effort to convince you to buy something. Usually we are among the offenders, but not in this instance. We present twenty-one paintings and nothing else. We have omitted the names of the artists and have even obscured their signatures. Gauge your heart's response absent of the influence of information and opinion. It is the best way to understand how you truly feel. This is what matters most—everything else is secondary and should have far less impact on your decision to acquire a specific work.

You may visit our web site or call us to learn more about the paintings that appeal to you.

So here we go — CHOOSE WITH YOUR HEART !
